

The 2022 World Language Week Distinguished Scholar could be YOU!

The World Language Distinguished Scholar Award recognizes Nebraska students for their:

- leadership in language learning
- commitment to language study
- appreciation for cultural diversity
- communicative competence

Each teacher can nominate one student per level for each language. For students learning the world language as a Foreign Language, the levels are as follows:

- Level I/ II (i.e.: German 1, German 2)
- Level III/IV (i.e.: French 3, or French 4)
- Level 5+ (i.e.: Spanish 5, AP, IB, etc)
- Heritage/native speaker of the language of study (i.e.: Spanish for Spanish Speakers 1, 2, 3, etc. You can nominate one for each level defined by your school in this category. For example, there are Spanish for Spanish Speakers 1, 2, 3 in your school, nominate 1 for each of those levels)

Teachers will nominate students by March 1st, 2022. Nominated students complete a submission form that represents their ability and appreciation for language learning. Awards will be published during World Language Week, March 31st – April 6th.
